

'Oh how happy we can be...

'Neath the spreading chestnut tree...' The old nursery rhyme might have been written describing The Green Man in Little Braxted, as many happy hours have surely been whiled away over the centuries by customers eating and drinking in this charming old pub, nestling under a huge horse chestnut on the village green.

The Green Man caters for its many regulars popping in for a pint and those visiting for a meal. Open fires in both bars create a cosy atmosphere in the colder months.

Food is locally sourced wherever possible and everything is made on site – tenant Adam Kiddier shares the cooking with chef Ashley Griffiths. The pub serves a good range of dishes including traditional pub fayre: pies; fish and chips; burgers and always something a little different, such as Goan fish curry or Spanakopitta – a spinach and feta filo pie. Chef Ashley's mum Tracy makes all the delicious desserts: pies, crumbles and puddings of every kind.

On Monday to Thursday lunchtimes the Over 55's menu is extremely popular and at £7.95 for 2 courses and £9.95 for three, it's easy to see why. There is a good selection for each course, but, if you are looking for a lighter bite, sandwiches, ploughmans, wraps and jacket potatoes are always available at lunchtimes.

Sunday is a consistently busy day at The Green Man, as the Sunday Roast has a great reputation locally. It is available from midday – 6pm. Booking is definitely advisable.

As a free house The Green Man hosts a good selection of beers from the Mighty Oak brewery in Maldon and Crouch Vale in Burnham. The pub is Cask Marque affiliated so knows how to look after its ale.

Forthcoming events include a Game Night and the annual Fireworks Night. Booking is advisable for both nights – check the website for details. And of course, it's always a good idea to book early for Christmas!

Monday 12pm - 3pm
 Tuesday – Thursday 12pm - 3pm
 & 5pm - 11pm, Friday 12pm - 3pm
 & 5pm - 12am, Saturday 12pm -
 12am, Sunday 12pm - 7pm
 Parking. No disabled access.
 The Green Man, Green Man Lane,
 Little Braxted CM8 3LB
 Tel: 01621 891659
 thegreenmanlb@outlook.com
 www.greenmanlittlebraxted.co.uk